If we can find peace, health, joy and connection in our dancing, trust that we can also carry these qualities with us into 2010.

Simple, low-impact sacred circle dances from around the world invite us into raucous celebration and contemplation. Every dance is taught first. Our repertoire includes both choreographed dances and traditional dances, particularly those from Greece, the Roma tradition, and the Balkans.

We dance with the intention of connecting fully to the dance, and through the dance deepening our connection to each other, the earth, and the sacred mystery that holds us all.
